EILEEN BRIGID QUINN KOHARSKI

AGE: 50 OCEAN TOWNSHIP

Eileen Brigid Quinn Koharski, 50, of Ocean Township, died Monday, Dec. 1, at Riverview Medical Center, Red Bank, after a long and courageous battle with cancer. Her heroic struggle was an inspiration to all who knew her. Eileen was born in Neptune and graduated from Asbury Park High School in 1976. She lived in Interlaken before moving to Wanamassa, Ocean Township in 1992. She was employed by the law firm of Schibell and Mennie for over 20 years before becoming disabled due to her illness. She was a volunteer with the Coastal Habitat For Humanity for many years. Eileen was a talented gardener and avid reader and she also pursued studies in Irish language and music.

Eileen was predeceased by her mother, Mary Frances Ryan Quinn; her father, Aloysius Kevin Quinn; and her sister, Sheila Frances LeMeune. Eileen is survived by her husband, James A. Koharski; her daughter, Delia Wells Menditto and her husband Charles of Manchester; and her step-sons, Thomas Koharski of Lakewood, and Keith Koharski of Brick. Eileen is also survived by her identical twin sister, Frances Quinn Dowling and her partner Rocco Precopio of Shark River Hills; her sister, Mary Kambic and her husband Robert of Baltimore, Md.; her sister, Kathleen Vaccari of Maplewood; her brother, Kevin E. Quinn and his wife Elaine of Ocean Township; and her brother, Declan Quinn of West Allenhurst. Eileen is survived by her mother-in-law, Marjorie Koharski of Neptune, with whom she enjoyed an especially loving relationship. Eileen is also survived by her nieces, Kathleen Denberg, Rachael LeMeune, Meghan Brewer, Elizabeth, Annie and Mary Clare Vaccari, Chelsey Sutton, Kristen Quinn, Molly Kambic, Deirdre Barvenik and Amy Baisley; and her nephews, Kieran and Brendan LeMeune, Sean Quinn and Robert Kambic. Eileen is also survived by a host of aunts, uncles and cousins, both here in the United States and in England, as well as many friends who loved her dearly.

Visitation will be from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday in the Buckley Funeral Home, 509 Second Ave., Asbury Park. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Friday in Holy Spirit Church, Asbury Park. Interment will be in Mount Calvary Cemetery, Neptune.
